

GRAMMAR WORKSHOPS

VOLUNTEER BOLIVIA SPANISH SCHOOL

COURSE OVERVIEW

Variable Schedule
Dates: Open

Our customized grammar classes are a perfect option for students wanting to fine-tune their Spanish. Classroom work takes place in one-to-one sessions and the course can last as long as you like depending on your availability.

For advanced students, we offer tutorials focused on tricky grammatical structures as well as addressing special needs related to translations, academic research or presentations. Tutorials are typically two to three times a week on a one-to-one basis.

Each student receives an individualized curriculum and materials. Instructors use materials that we have developed to teach conversation, writing and grammar. All of our professors are professionally trained and have numerous years of experience. Their participatory methodology includes options for local field trips.

Students will be informally evaluated to determine their language proficiency level. There is the option to be assessed with the ACTFL oral proficiency exam and a written exam. Please let us know if you would like this.

If you are taking these classes for a specific purpose such as giving a presentation, in the field interviews or writing a dissertation please let us know that so we can tailor the class to your needs as much as possible.
